Dear Dr. Mitchell and Mr. Harlow:

The Publications Review Board has completed its review of the [redacted] (b)(3) NatSecAct [redacted] "Interrogating the Enemy." In accordance with the terms of your secrecy or non-disclosure agreement, the Board has determined that certain information in [redacted] (b)(3) NatSecAct [redacted] is inappropriate for disclosure in the public domain (i.e., is considered to be classified information) and must be revised or deleted prior to publication.

[redacted] (b)(3) NatSecAct [redacted] The Board requests that you do not further use or distribute the original book proposal containing this text.

Please re-submit the edited page only so that the Board can verify you have made the deletion. Given the small piece to delete and the late stage in your publishing process, we assure you that we will respond promptly with final approval.

A copy of the edited page is enclosed for your records. The Board is always willing to meet with you to provide clearer explanations to the objectionable text. Please contact us (b)(3) CIAAct [redacted] if you would like to schedule a meeting in our office.

(b)(3) NatSecAct

If you add material or change the text the Board has approved for publication, you must submit these additions or changes to us before giving them to your publisher or anyone else. In such a case, please mark or otherwise clearly indicate the new material so we can expedite our review. Additional material that must be submitted includes, but is not limited to, photographs, photograph captions, illustrations, diagrams, tables, charts, indexes, glossaries, biographies, cover images, or maps.

If you disagree with the Board's determination, you may ask the Board in writing and within 30 days of the initial determination, to reconsider. Include any and all information or explanation of the facts that you believe the Board should know. You may include citations or copies of similar references that show this information to have been previously released and already in the public domain, although a mere listing of published citations may not necessarily be sufficient to change the Board's decision. If the Board upholds its initial decision, you may then formally appeal the Board's reconsideration decision. Such appeals go to the Agency's Executive Director for a final Agency decision. If you wish to appeal, you must do so within 30 days of the Board's reconsideration decision. The appeal must be in writing and must be sent to the Board's Chairman. Appeal documentation must include the material intended for publication and any supporting material you would like the Executive Director to consider. Please note that in all cases, the decision of the ExDir/CIA is final. If an appeal is NOT brought to the attention of ExDir/CIA within applicable time limits, the original decision of the PRB will be adopted.

The Board appreciates your cooperation with prepublication review. Please do not hesitate to contact the Publications Review Board at [redacted] if you have any questions or if we can be of further assistance. (b)(3) CIAAct

Sincerely,

(b)(3) CIAAct
